COVER - MAYFLOWER, SYMBOL OF COURAGE

The great courage and endurance of the first settlers of Plymouth has been an inspiration to Americans for centuries. This survival and fight to improve one's life has long been a pattern for our countrymen to follow. Courage is a quality of the spirit that is timeless. The Mayflower II reminds us of the small band who braved the unknown to pave the way for our fortunate life of comparative riches.

Bent Twig School to Close

In a joint meeting of the Marion and Old Rochester Regional District School Committees, conducted on Thursday, November 16th, in Marion's Sippican School Library, it was unanimously voted "To terminate the 'Bent Twig School' on December 22nd, 1972 and to return the students to their respective schools at the start of the calendar year 1973." At this same meeting, the Superintendent of Schools and the respective school administrators were instructed to prepare suitable plans for educational options embracing the concepts of self direction with independent study for the students. A general description of the plan was made known to the School Committees by the Superintendent of Schools at the meeting.

The plan so described by the Superintendent of Schools embodied those practices of the "Bent Twig" School which provided for self direction and creativity on the part of the students and the staff, focused responsibility on educational managers (teacher-counselors), included provisions for students in grades 1 through 6 who attend the "Bent Twig" from Marion and made separate provisions for students in grades 9 through 12 at the Old Rochester Regional High School. In the Superintendent's proposal, students in grades 7 and 8 would be assigned to the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School because the program offered in the school is predicated on the concept of student self direction and independent study through team teaching.

It was the concerted opinion of the respective school committee members that the educational objectives of the "Bent Twig" School can now be served in the existing schools. It was also the concerted opinion of the respective school committee members that the "Bent Twig" School staff and the pioneer work performed by them should be utilized in establishing the guidelines for the modified plan of educational options.

Wareham's Junior Miss

The Regional Scholarship Club which annually sponsors the Wareham's Junior Miss Pageant initiated its first preliminary meeting with interested candidates this past Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Church Hall. Approximately 23 senior high girls from the area's high schools attended to go through the first phases of rehearsals.

All Junior Miss entrants participate in the competitive categories which include Scholastic Achievement, Creative & Performing Arts, Youth Fitness, Poise & Appearance, and Mental Alertness & Interview. These young ladies from Wareham High School, Bourne High School and Old Rochester Regional High School will compete on the evening of December 2nd at the Old Rochester Regional High School Auditorium for the coveted title of Wareham's Junior Miss now held by Nancy Jo Gibson, a freshman at the University of Massachusetts. The winner will travel to Hyannis and compete for the State title and possibly the America's Junior Miss Crown in Mobile, Alabama in

Bent Twig Lesson

Editorial, D.C.J.

The closing of the Bent Twig School in Marion is a closeout of a chapter of experimentation in the school system that has produced some interesting results. It may be that these young people have rediscovered something of basic value that has been obscured for 40 years. The fact that this school could operate in any makeshift space with any discarded furniture, is a rather interesting argument giving the lie to the trend to the pouring of money into gadgets. Equipment and fixtures and beautiful surroundings are nice but the Bent Twig has shown up their superfluous value. One good teacher in a barn outweighs 140 tons of audio visual equipment. Highly motivated "kids" are not turned on by machines. They are sparked by human interest and the passing on of a desire to excel. In many ways the contemporary pupil surrounded by luxury, pampered by equipment and fancy fixtures is deprived.

The fact that the top administrators of our Regional School system and some of the School Committee members that run it were willing to remove their own children from this system and place them in a bare room on pillows is most interesting. Something seems to be lacking at the expensive educational facility of Old Rochester. It is not money. No other public facility demands more of the taxpayer. It is extremely painful to enter the high school and look closely at the systematic destruction of the once beautiful building. The broken panels in the ceiling far from accidental harm, the slashed seats of the once comfortable chairs of a beautiful auditorium, these and other less obvious acts of wanton vandalism disturb the average citizen. Why furnish the finest, if the finest is the immediate target of destruction? The Bent Twig has many faults, perhaps. As in all experiments it had to fail often in order to discover successful paths. One thing is evident however. Some children were motivated to study in surroundings that would have outraged some indulgent parent activists. This recent quote at the Mattapoisett Parent Teachers' Club meeting is an example: "The people of this town ought to thank us for allowing our children to attend a 70 year old school". This statement referred to Center School. I submit that this parent and all of us who pay for send- his child or children to this perfectly adequate facility might look at other features of education besides the bricks and glass.

such as music, art, physical education, and computer programming. The project is unlike anything else in the curriculum. It is a project in which the student is the teacher. Each student is assigned to a teacher who has requested help in a particular area. The student then works with the teacher in preparing materials and in working with the children.

If the Bent Twig has any lesson it is this. You can teach in a makeshift tent on the floor. If the teacher is imaginative and can motivate the pupil, the pupil will learn eagerly and become creative. A creative person abhors destruction. So why not pressure for this quality of education? Why not lobby for the superior teaching that we have been paying for? Why not press for the elimination of the destructive hoodlum element that disturbs the serious student and destroys his educational opportunity and surroundings?

FLOYD TINKHAM ILL

Mr. N. Floyd Tinkham of Mechanic Street, Mattapoisett, suffered a slight stroke while working at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church on Saturday evening. Mr. Tinkham was conscious and trying to crawl to the telephone when discovered by Tony Roderick who was delivering flowers to the church. Mr. Roderick notified the Tinkham family and the town ambulance was called to take Mr. Tinkham to Tobey Hospital. He is reported to be in good spirits and to be improving as a patient there.

Senior Citizens Club

The Senior Citizens' Club of Mattapoisett held a meeting Monday at the American Legion Hall. There was a very large turnout and many new members joined. Mr. Charles Adams, chairman of Council on Aging and also a member of the Senior Club, was present to sign the identification cards which were issued that day. It is time for dues to be paid for 1973, unless members joined in September or October. Members may pay their dues at the next meeting or mail them to the secretary.

Mrs. Sophie Sterling presided. Mr. Adams spoke to the group and explained the work of Council on Aging which is appointed by law to work with any person 59 years of age or older whether a Senior Citizen Club member or not.

Mrs. Sterling then introduced Dr. Kestenbaum, founder and first director on Council on Aging, Senior Citizens' Club and Senate in New Bedford area. He gave a very informative and interesting talk

DAR Meeting

HONORED AT FORT PHOENIX DAR

The highlight of the 60th anniversary celebration at the Wamsutta Club on November 13th of the Fort Phoenix Chapter DAR was the presentation of the Medal of Honor to Mr. Kenneth Lavallee and Mr. Donald Bernard of Fairhaven.

Mr. Lavallee told how the annual Flag Day "Festival of Flags" celebration started in Fairhaven and his work to encourage respect and love for the Flag among the youth. Both the Fort Phoenix and New Bedford Chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution took part in this year's celebration raising one of the twelve flags which flew in front of the Town Hall, followed by other citizens each raising a Flag and the historical significance of that particular Flag in American history.

Mr. Bernard told how his interest in the history of Fort Phoenix came about because of a homework assignment of one of his daughters. Because of his efforts the 4th Old Dartmouth Militia was organized which now numbers 35 men who wear resplendent blue-coated authentic uniforms, all made by Mr. Bernard's mother, who was also an honored guest at this luncheon. The Fort Phoenix Chapter has taken part in ceremonies conducted by Mr. Bernard on Memorial Day honoring the Revolutionary soldiers buried at the Acushnet Cemetery and ceremonies held at Fort Phoenix honoring the first naval battle of the American Revolution which took place there.

Because the Americanism Committee felt that both these men have done so much to stimulate wider interest in the history of the American Revolution as well as to encourage respect for and love of the Flag, Mrs. C. Joseph Nowak, as chairman of the Massachusetts DAR Americanism Committee, felt honored to present to each of these men the highest honor the DAR can give to a native-born citizen who has exhibited qualities of outstanding leadership, trustworthiness, service and patriotism contributing toward the betterment of their community. This was a very unusual event to have two such medals presented at one time, but it was felt that two such men were also unusual and it would be hard to separate them.

Before the luncheon, Mrs. Elbridge Shaw, chaplain, said a commemorative invocation and Mrs. Nowak, as Regent, introduced the various Regents from the South Shore District and State Chairmen present.

The tables were gaily decorated with patriotic red, white and blue and at each place was a pad Keep America Beautiful and brochure, A Tour of American Historic Shrines - The Freedom Trail.

Miss Emma Mayhew, a member of the Fort Phoenix Chapter for the longest time among those present, and Mrs. Raymond Lang, the newest member, received small mementos of the occasion, as did Mrs. Bernard.

The Salute to the Flag of the United States was followed by the recitation of The American's Creed, and the singing of

A turkey was awarded to Mrs. Mary J. Costa. Mrs. Olive Gifford reported on the Junior Grange and the Home and Community Service Committee. She will conduct a Penny Sale at the next meeting, December 7th, when the Pomona officers will fill the chairs and present the program.

The lecturer's program opened with a candlelight service honoring Thanksgiving. This service was presented by the lecturer and conducted by Master Harris and Chaplain Pearson, with the officers in a semicircle around the altar.

The lecturer's march went to Mrs. Olive Gifford. Birthdays of Mrs. Mildred Le Baron and Mr. Otto Kellish were recognized.

Following the meeting, bingo was enjoyed by all.

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA

The reapparance of the familiar Volunteers of American Christmas workers on November 21st in the busy stores in New Bedford signals the start of the organization's annual Christmas campaign appeal. Funds collected by these workers will be used to provide free dinners and other holiday assistance to the needys, as well as to support the numerous and continuing welfare programs of the Volunteers.

Thanks to the contributions of the public more than 350 persons were served Christmas dinners last year. In addition a variety of winter relief, including clothing and food orders, was provided to other needy persons and families in the area.

Major Hal Hughes, the local Volunteers of America leader, expressed confidence that once again the citizens of our community will respond generously to its workers to insure the success of the 1972 Christmas campaign, as well as that of the programs to be carried forward in the coming year.

Student Government Day

REPRESENTATIVE TO STUDENT GOV'T DAY

The Old Rochester Regional High School representative to Student Government Day, 1973, will be Mark Barry of Marion. Elections were held on Thursday, November 10th, with grades 10-12 voting. The other three candidates appearing on the ballot were Raj Ishrish, Jo-Ann Taylor and Marion Robinson.

In order to have their name placed on the ballot, a student had to obtain ten signatures from their classmates. A week prior to elections, the candidates issued "position papers" to the student body. These position papers expressed the candidate's views on topics ranging from abortion to drugs, from pollution to amnesty.

Mark will attend Student Government Day in April, 1973. On that day students from schools throughout the Commonwealth will meet to assume the various roles of the executive and legislative branches of the state government.

"Buddy" Enlistments

"BUDDY" PROGRAM IN NAVAL RESERVE

The commanding officer of the Naval Reserve Center, New Bedford, Lt. Norman D. Greer, announced that the long-awaited "Buddy Program" with a two year enlistment is available to men ages 17-26.

The program, which allows up to a quartet of young men to serve together during a portion or possibly all of the 2 year tour, has been previously requested by high school graduates and other men from this area and local neighborhoods.

Due to the limited openings and opportunities afforded in the "Buddy" program, men are urged to apply early in order to be placed on the waiting list for available billets.

The current program will now satisfy the needs of youth who wish to serve at the same time and at the same place. In only a 2 year active duty tour, small groups of not more than 4 individuals who enlist together will be "guaranteed" to undergo recruit training and also be initially assigned to the same ultimate duty station. Qualified individuals may attend a guaranteed class "A" school (8-18) weeks.

It is anticipated that the buddy program will stimulate first enlistments in the New Bedford and local Cape Cod area, because it will enable such enlistees to serve together while on active duty.

"Buddies" must desire the same choice of coasts but the guarantee can be waived by either buddy at any time. Applications are now being considered at Fort Rodman for this "Packaged Promise" which is part of the 2 years of active duty for both men.

All applicants may be assured that they will train together in the same recruit company (usually composed of 50 Men) at one of the Naval Training Centers normally at Orlando, Florida or Great Lakes (Waukegan) Illinois.

Woman's Club News

The Fine Arts Group will meet November 28th at 8 P.M. at the home of Mrs. John Moynihan, 25 North Street.

The November meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club was held November 16th under the title of "Home Life Day". Mrs. Louis Corey, Jr. was chairman for the day.

Mrs. Philip Murray, president, welcomed everyone at 10 A.M. and morning coffee was enjoyed. The invocation was given by Mrs. Albert Norlander followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. An informative workshop entitled "Do You Fit Your Clothes or Do Your Clothes Fit You?" was given by Mrs. Albert Furnans and Mrs. Peter Kodis, Jr. Following this, a lecture by Mr. Charles A. Adams was enjoyed. Mr. Adams, a local attorney, spoke about "Wills and Women".

Turning to the lighter side, Mrs. Luen Johnson showed some very beautiful slides of "Christmas in Williamsburg". A very enjoyable luncheon was prepared and served by Mrs. Clarence Fountain and her committee.

The business meeting was then called to order by Mrs. Murray. Honored guests were Mrs. Eugene Faucher, first vice-president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Oscar J. Palmer, chairman of the Home Life Department.

Mrs. Norman Atkinson introduced several other guests and welcomed three new members. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. William Betts, and Mrs. Joseph Holt gave the treasurer's report. Correspondence was read by Mrs. Bruce Bedford. Federation Secretary, Mrs. John Moynihan announced that Club Institute would be December 7th in Worcester. "Home Life" will be the main topic.

Mrs. Marshall Ross gave a very extensive and informative report on the annual Fall Meeting which she and Mrs. Frank Oxnard attended October 31st at Amherst.

It was voted that donations from the club would be made to the Touch and See Trail, Federation Scholarships and to Presidential Classroom.

Mrs. Oscar Palmer extended greetings from the State Home Life Department. Mrs. Eugene Faucher talked about getting involved in community improvement. She mentioned the many scholarships given by the Federation and spoke briefly of the General Federation Meeting held in Denver.

The official call was given to the Mid-Winter Federation meeting which will be held January 30th at the Sheraton in Boston. The main speaker will be Jill Rucklehouse. Her topic will be "Listen to the Women".

The main speaker for the afternoon was the Rev. Robert W. Golledge, Vicar of the Old North Church in Boston. His talk on "The Importance of Religion in the Home" was both informative and stimulating.

Observing Thanksgiving

THANKSGIVING THROUGH THE YEARS

Did you know that Thanksgiving didn't become a nationwide observance until 1864? It's a fact! And this is just one of the many surprising facts about our traditional American holiday.

The first Thanksgiving was held in December of 1621, when Governor William Bradford of the Plymouth Colony appointed a day of celebration and sent four men out to shoot wild turkey and other fowl.

The Pilgrims had come ashore from the Mayflower on December 21, 1620. The winter that followed had been heartbreaking: half of the entire band had perished of disease, hunger and exposure. But Indians befriended the remaining group and gave them corn seed. Thus the seeds were sown for the first Thanksgiving harvest.

It was a warm and bright summer, and the crops grew and thrived. When autumn arrived, three log warehouses were filled with provisions - the harvest of 20 acres of corn, and six acres of wheat, rye, barley and peas.

It was a woman, Sarah Josepha Hale, however, who first suggested that Thanksgiving should be a national patriotic holiday. She was the editor of a popular woman's magazine and for almost 20 years she campaigned through editorials and letters to the President, state governors and others.

Finally, she was able to win the support of President Lincoln. In the third year of the Civil War, he believed that the Union had been saved; he therefore proclaimed a national holiday to be celebrated on the last Thursday in November as the day to be observed each year.

Today, the occasion is still a time for giving thanks with reverent prayers, a turkey feast and flower decorations. As was true with the Pilgrims' celebration, fresh blossoms are still a symbol of bounty and festivity. With this in mind, FTD florists have taken a cue from the mood of the holiday and have designed a floral bouquet reminiscent of the rich palette of the autumn fields as a tribute to that first Thanksgiving.

Called the "Thanksgiver", this special design is an array of harvest colors - yellow and bronze mums, red-orange carnations, cattails, oak leaves and leatherleaf fern.

Whether you can make it to the family gathering, or have to relay your message across the miles, local FTD florists will
